

I agree with the petition filed by AARL. These changes are necessary for the continuation of the hobby in these changing times. The changes porposed will allow for more radio operators to be available for home land security as well as local and other emergency conditions.